Balticon Dealers Room Applicants

Good day,

Balticon is a science fiction convention of about 2000 attendees.

We endeavor to maintain this theme in the dealer's room. Balticon reserves the right to select dealers and to limit space assigned. Such concerns as a balanced room, prompt accurate application and prior dealing at the convention are considered. Please read all the paperwork and fill out both forms, not doing so may harm your chances for tables.

All areas will be secured by convention security after hours.

Please remember that we are a four-day convention and you are expected to have your table area open for business from open to close all four days. If you are unable to do this, please contact me to be sure we can accommodate you. If there is an emergency be sure to either contact me or the at con coordinator. Those who do not stay for the whole weekend are at risk of not being asked back.

Hope to see you at Balticon,

Kelly Shannon Pierce
